BEN-HUR
MIKLOS ROZSA

Premiere Digital Recording of the Complete 156 minute Score for the 1959 Classic starring Charlton Heston and directed by William Wyler. Not only one of the greatest of all films, winner of 11 Oscars, but certainly one of the finest of all film scores from the composer of EL CID, KING OF KINGS, SPELLBOUND, SODOM & GOMORRAH, TIME AFTER TIME, THE PRIVATE LIFE OF SHERLOCK HOLMES, THE THIEF OF BAGDAD.

And certainly the most ambitious (and expensive) recording ever undertaken by Tadlow Music including 10 orchestral sessions with 96 piece orchestra, plus additional sessions for brass marches and fanfares, and ethnic music cues plus choir sessions. The City of Prague Philharmonic Orchestra and Chorus, at their finest, conducted by Nic Raine. Score reconstructed by Leigh Phillips. Produced by James Fitzpatrick for Tadlow Music. Autumn 2017 release.

This is one of the best re-recordings of a classic film score I have ever heard. It just overflows with dynamic sound and vivid performances by all.

In addition to the performance by orchestra and chorus, add to that the addition of cues not even in the film plus the premiere recorded ones, and you have one of the greatest film music re-recordings of our time.

The performances and recorded sound quality are SUPERB!

"Stunning performance and recording.

Wonderful music - sometimes broadly melodic, sometimes jagged and complex that demands much thought and analysis."
